OFFICE TALK

Our Grade 5-6 classes led our Remembrance Day Assembly very well today. The following poems were written by two of the students:

The Legacy of the Soldier

*Have joy because they helped us,
Mourn because they've died.
Think of those affected,
Comfort those who cried.
Visit crosses, white as snow.
Let out tears, but do not go.
Their suffering is over,
No more do they feel pain.
They are still with us,
Though gone, though slain.
Remember the legacy,
Of poppies black and red.
Wear them on your heart,
For soldier who have bled.
After they've gone,
Maybe back they came.
You will know,
Things will never be the same.*

-- Erin, Grade 6

Remembrance Day

*On the eleventh month of the eleventh day,
Wallaceburg Christian School will stop to pray,
To remember all the brave soldiers that died,
In almost every single country worldwide.
The Canadian soldiers lie where the poppies grow
In Flanders Fields where the winds blow,
And the bugle call rings through the land,
Played by the old military band,
To remember them and let them rest in peace,
They are home now and their troubles cease.
So on November 11 we should be most grateful,
And we should thank God for being so faithful.
So when the bugle calls and we stop to pray,
We should thank God for how Canada is today.*
