OFFICE TALK

Our Grade 7-8 and JK-SK students visited the Thamesville Corn Maize last week. They learned about pumpkins and corn, and enjoyed their day at the maze.

SCHOOL NEWS ITEMS

Hotdog Day

We will have October's Hotdog Day this Thursday, October 31.

Grade 1-2 are asked to bring treats, 1 dozen per student. No candy please. All profits go toward year end class trips.

Parent Teacher Conferences

The schedule is being finalized. If you have not sent in your form, please contact the office as soon as possible. Forms with assigned times will be sent home on Wednesday.

Smile for the camera!

Diane Guenther will be taking photos of our students at special events throughout the school year. They will be used mainly on the website and Kingdom News. Names will not be attached to the pictures.

Food Drive

We have collected food for the Salvation Army food bank over the past few weeks. We brought in 261 items for them, plus $500 in gift cards from re:find! Thank you for helping to provide food for our community.

Parent-Student Handbook

Watch for the latest version of the Parent Student Handbook to come home this week.

Scholastic

Order forms were handed out. Any orders are due by October 31. Cheques should be made out to Scholastics Canada, or you can pay online. No cash please.
